REPORT OF THE ACCOUNTING OFFICER

Report of the accounting officer to THE SPRIGHTLY SEED NPC

I have performed the duties of accounting officer to THE SPRIGHTLY SEED NPC for the year ended 31 May 2019 as required by the Founding Document of THE SPRIGHTLY SEED NPC. The Founding Document determines that we should perform the duties of an accounting officer as specified in the Companies Act 71, 2008. The annual financial statements set out on pages 6 to 11 are the responsibility of the directors. No review or any other form of assurance is required by the Founding Document to be carried out and no review or other assurance was conducted. Accordingly, we do not imply or express an opinion or any other form of assurance on the annual financial statements.

I have determined that the annual financial statements are in agreement with the accounting records, and have done so by adopting such procedures, and conducting such enquiries in relation to the books of account and records, as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

I have also reviewed the financial procedures, which have been applied in preparation of the accounting records, and I consider that they are appropriate to the company.

MANAGEMENT RESPONSIBILITIES AND APPROVAL

The management is required to maintain adequate accounting records and are responsible for the content and integrity of the annual financial statements and related financial information included in this report. It is their responsibility to ensure that the annual financial statements satisfy the financial reporting standards as to form and content and present fairly the statement of financial position, results of operations and business of the organisation, and explain the transactions and financial position of the business of the organisation at the end of the financial year. The annual financial statements are based upon appropriate accounting policies consistently applied throughout the organisation and supported by reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates.

The management acknowledges that they are ultimately responsible for the system of internal financial control established by the organisation and place considerable importance on maintaining a strong control environment. To enable the management to meet these responsibilities, the board sets standards for internal control aimed at reducing the risk of error or loss in a cost effective manner. The standards include the proper delegation of responsibilities within a clearly defined framework, effective accounting procedures and adequate segregation of duties to ensure an acceptable level of risk. These controls are monitored throughout the organisation and all employees are required to maintain the highest ethical standards in ensuring the organisations business is conducted in a manner that in all reasonable circumstances is above reproach.

The focus of risk management in the organisation is on identifying, assessing, managing and monitoring all known forms of risk across the organisation. While operating risk cannot be fully eliminated, the organisation endeavours to minimise it by ensuring that appropriate infrastructure, controls, systems and ethical behaviour are applied and managed within predetermined procedures and constraints.

The management is of the opinion, based on the information and explanations given by management that the system of internal control provides reasonable assurance that the financial records may be relied on for the preparation of the annual financial statements. However, any system of internal financial control can provide only reasonable, and not absolute, assurance against material misstatement or loss. The going-concern basis has been adopted in preparing the financial statements. Based on forecasts and available cash resources the management has no reason to believe that the organisation will not be a going concern in the foreseeable future. The financial statements support the viability of the organisation.

The accounting officer is responsible for reporting on the company's annual financial statements. The accounting officer report is presented on page 3.
